EVEN THE BBC ARE SUNDAY Sport FANS!

Corporation buys 104 copies of Britain's BEST paper

FUN-LOVING bosses at the BBC know the BREAST way to get hold of Britain's most astonishing headlines – they buy Sunday Sport!

The corporation bought 104 copies of Britain's favourite newspaper in 2014 – that's TWO copies a week.

No doubt they are hugely impressed with our BBC coverage – such as our March 22 front page headline about a transvestite who looked like former Top Gear host Jeremy Clarkson.

The BBC bought 622,832 copies of 20 mainstream daily and Sunday national papers last year, new figures show.

Most-bought

Their most popular Sunday newspaper was The Sunday Times, followed by The Observer and The Mail on Sunday.

After criticism, the left-wing, loss-making Guardian newspaper is no longer the Beeb's most-bought publication.

That crown has been taken by the Daily Mail, famed for its pictures of "all-grown-up" teenagers.

Previously, the Beeb has been accused of bias after they bought more copies of The Guardian in 2013 than any other publication, despite it being one of the LEAST POPULAR newspapers in the UK.

In terms of cost, the BBC spent the most money on Telegraph titles but actually bought more copies of News UK papers.

The figures emerged after a Freedom of Information request by Press Gazette.

Overall, the BBC spent £101 on their subscription to Sunday Sport.

A BBC source said: "With only two copies of Sunday Sport in the BBC there's always a bit of a mad scramble to be the first to get hold of it.

"Dimbleby usually has first dibs on it."

Paris shakes bare booty to new tune

CELEBRITY sex tape superstar Paris Hilton is at it again – as she grabs a thick shaft with a bulbous end… while crooning into a microphone for her brand new POP SINGLE.

The pert blonde shot to fame in 2004 when a video showing her bonking then-boyfriend Rick Salomon became a viral hit online.

But now she's swapping oral for aural as she puts her lips to use singing on new dance track High Off My Love, which is out next month.

To plug the tune, New York-born Paris, 34, uploaded a snap to Instagram showing her posing NUDE while wearing nothing but a pair of leather boots.

One gushing fan told her: "Very very sexy!"

While another nutter added: "I wish to rush the horses, the carriage to the abyss of its entry – into my world of fantasy!"

Of course, it's not the first time Paris has tried her hand at a singing career.

She launched the album Paris back in 2006, which the critics hated but which sold by the bucketload.

Pussycat Kim: Hubby loves my massive boobs

TELLY scorcher Kimberly Wyatt says her hubby loves her massive BOOBS!

The former Pussycat Dolls singer and Got To Dance judge (above) says her top-rack has ballooned since having a child.

And Kim, 33, says lucky fella, male model Max Rogers, is the one who's benefiting!

She said: "My boobs are MASSIVE! My husband Max loves it!"

Meanwhile Kim is keen to get her pert ARSE back in shape, too.

She added: "I plan to start exercising in another four weeks.

"I don't have a target weight – I just want to feel good."

FEMINIST groups slam F1 ace Lewis Hamilton after he squirted champagne into the face of a podium girl following his victory in Shanghai.

What?! Motor sport has a long and glorious history of drivers squirting things into the faces of pretty race hostesses – and it's usually something far less pleasant than champagne.

A TELEVISED election debate sees a group hug between the three female party leaders: the SNP's Nicola Sturgeon, Plaid Cymru's Leanne Wood and the Green's Natalie Bennett.

What an amazing high-power threesome that would be: the Scot would bring the oil, the Welsh would make plenty of noise and the Green would struggle to control her emissions.

BGT Amanda ditches tit-end covers for Norton show

PERKY Amanda Holden ditched her nipple covers to show off her proud teat ends during an appearance on the Graham Norton show.

The 44-year-old This Morning host revealed last week that she wears special caps to hide her chapel hat pegs while appearing on daytime TV.

But there was no such restraint on Norton's late-night BBC show where she appeared alongside actresses Carey Mulligan and Noomi Rapace along with singer Jessie Ware.

At one point Britain's Got Talent judge Amanda pulled up her flowing lilac dress to reveal an inking of her boss Simon Cowell on her left thigh.

But it wasn't a real tattoo. That would be madness.

D-INKY TOY: Tatt man had a brilliant time with porn star

THE tattooed star of last week's Channel 5 body art documentary failed to get his NEEDLE up while taking part in a slippery ORGY in the back of a VAN.

Daubed Matthew Whelan – who has changed his named by Deed Poll to 'King of Ink Land King Body Art The Extreme Ink-Ite' – is Britain's most tattooed man.

He starred on Tuesday's telly show, 2000 Tattoos, 40 Piercings And A Pickled Ear, describing how he fell in love with ink after having his first skin etching aged just 16.

But while King of Ink Land, 35, might look scary he struggled to put the willies up 34F grumble beauty Rebecca More as they romped in the back of lorry!

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

The antics were filmed as part of a nationwide sex tour organised by top grot channel Television X, in which members of the public turned up with their knobs out to bonk her!

And up-the-bum lover Rebecca, 36, today pours scorn on his performance, telling us: "He even has a tattooed – albeit very small – cock.

"He couldn't get it up and just about managed to wank his tiny semi, but was pretty good at going down on me!"

The explicit scenes are due to be screened on TVX later this month.

Property management company owner King of Inkland, who even had his EYEBALLS drilled by a tattoo gun , says he still LOVED being an adult star.

Speaking exclusively to Sunday Sport, he brazenly told us: "Yeah, I couldn't get it up!

"Oh my days, it was terrifying.

Colourful King of Inkland is no stranger to appearing on the small screen.

He performed on ITV's Britain's Got Talent in 2010, with judge Amanda Holden asking him, 'Are you tattooed everywhere? Even down there?'

And Lib Dem activist King of Inkland has also appeared as an extra in UK porn show Benefits Treat – a spoof of Channel 4 series Benefits Street.

And he says he's been swamped with requests for NOOKIE from lusty groupies since he appeared on Channel 5, and ITV's This Morning, this week.

He said: "You wouldn't believe how many women have been pestering me for sex!"

Adult nappy man booted out of Tesco

A SHOPPER was kicked out of Tesco for wearing an adult NAPPY – telling staff he wore it as he had "that Saturday feeling".

Stunned workers saw Anthony Bradford wandering around the aisles with nothing on apart from a diaper.

Eye-witnesses in Plymouth, Devon, watched him politely leave the shop before posing for photographs outside in the car park.

Anthony, 26, of Plymouth, denied the stunt was part of a bet.

He said: "I had the Saturday feeling. It's all good fun. When you get that Saturday feeling, you have got to show the world."

A Tesco spokesman said: "We asked the man to leave because some of our customers were offended by his costume."

THE VOICE OF YOUR BRITAIN

We'll give Russkies bum's rush

THESE are perilous times for the British Isles.

Almost daily, the armed forces of the sinister Russian Empire probe our defences and test our mettle.

The hordes of the East – their dark eyes glinting with envy – are poised to swarm across our frontiers and overwhelm western civilisation.

Emboldened by strong liquor and unnatural lusts, the Russians could strike at any time.

Now we learn that the forces of Ivan are baring their ARSES at the sacred coast of the United Kingdom.

In the dark annals of warfare, there is no greater signal of contempt and derision.

It is time for our mighty nation to be strong and to meet such provocation with the growl of the British lion.

Our forebears stood firm against the Spaniards' Armada, the armies of Napoleon, the Kaiser's Zeppelins and the firebombs of Hitler's Luftwaffe.

We shall show similar resolve in the face of pox-pocked Russian arses.

Our girls are a Brit of alright

NAYSAYERS regularly claim that this country no longer exports what the world needs.

They bemoan our fall from the workshop of the world to an effete rump of powdered call-centre workers.

But they fail to recognise a sector where British exports are still internationally craved…

Our womenfolk.

A vast tide of British prostitutes flows to the fleshpots of the Arabian Peninsula proving the point once and for all: Britain still produces the goods that the world wants to enjoy.

More wk telly!

A JAP gameshow where contestants sing karaoke numbers while being intimately fondled is coming to Britain.

Cameron pal's 'more boobs' Thrones row

A FRIEND of David Cameron has BLASTED Game of Thrones beauty Emilia Clarke for not getting her BOOBS out enough in the new series.

Posh hack James Delingpole (below) wrote in the snooty Spectator magazine that she'd like Emilia's character, Daenerys Targaryen, to DIE!

Delingpole, 49, wrote: "One of the people I'd quite like to die is the Mother of Dragons, Daenerys Targaryen.

"For one thing, she doesn't show her breasts nearly often enough these days (did I read somewhere that Emilia Clarke has had a no-nudie clause written into her contract or is that a wanton slur?), and for another she's just a frightful fascist."

Delingpole describes himself as "reasonably good friends" with both the Prime Minister and Boris Johnson.

The Sky Atlantic fantasy epic, currently on screens with its fifth season, is famous for its red-hot, boobs-out nookie scenes.

But telly bosses David Benioff and D.B. Weiss said they have already come up with a finale.

Yank writer Benioff, 44, said: "We know what the end is, and we're barrelling toward it. So the idea that we're going to try and stretch it out by an extra couple years – just because we're all having a good time doing it, and people are making money off it – just feels like it would be a betrayal."

FORGET THE BRITAIN'S GOT TALENT 'SINGING' POOCH...

MY DOG'S GOT TOURETTES!

MOUTH PIECE: Miss Wendy wowed BGT judges (below)

FOUR-LETTER WORD FRIEND: Owner Phil and his mutt Jock

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

A FOUL-MOUTHED pooch has been BANNED from its local park after blurting out a string of X-rated SWEARWORDS!

Last week ITV viewers gasped out loud as a singing dog called Miss Wendy appeared on Britain's Got Talent.

In actual fact, the mutt wasn't really crooning – it had been fitted with a mechanical mouthpiece controlled by its ventriloquist owner, Marc Métral.

But now Brighton pub manager Phil Martin, 32, says his lovable four-legged friend Jock really CAN recite human words.

The only problem is that six-year-old cross breed Jock fking loves a good expletive.

Phil told Sunday Sport: "It all began when I taught Jock to say 'sausages' – like on that advert.

"Then, after I kept making him say it over and over again he turned around and growled, 'Fk off' at me! I couldn't believe my ears.

"His vocabulary expanded quite quickly from there. Every time the postman comes in a morning he grunts 'Cock!'

"And he even called my girlfriend Jess a 'slag' once.

Stroke

"We were down the park one day last week and he just went mental when a group of kids tried to stroke him – it was one four-letter word after another.

"One parent heard him bark out the word 'ct' and flipped her lid, telling me she was going to report me to the council.

"Sure enough, the next time I was out in the park an official came up to me and politely asked me never to walk Jock there again.

"It's not his fault, he's picked up all these words from some of the regulars at the pub I run."

Phil thinks Jock suffers from the canine equivalent of human Tourette's syndrome, where sufferers blurt out random vulgar words and phrases uncontrollably.

GAME OF THRONES 'DRAGONS' ARE NEWTS!

Warning over fake mythical beasts

DON'T be fooled into buying "real life Game of Thrones dragons" off the internet.

Because they're nothing but NEWTS with fake wings cruelly STAPLED to their backs!

This barbarity is being carried out by a gang of Russian crooks looking to cash-in on the success of the Sky Atlantic drama.

They are even using Great Crested Newts – a species protected under EU laws which make it illegal to harm, or even own, one of the slippery critters.

One UK customer who fell for the scam ordered a 'dragon' from a website originating in Moscow.

In the popular TV fantasy show actress Emilia Clarke, 28, plays dragon Queen Daenerys Targaryen (left) – a sexy babe who's got three pet fire-breathers.

Teen's 007 fingerprint gun reality

A JAMES Bond gun that uses fingerprint technology, so it can only be fired by its owner, has moved a step closer to reality.

In 2012's Skyfall Daniel Craig's 007 is seen wielding a weapon that uses biometric sensors to stop it falling into enemy hands.

But that movie gadget has now been replicated for real by Kai Kloepfer – an 18-year-old tech geek.

He hopes his pistol will prove to be the "safest" fun in the world – putting an end to fatal firearms accidents or high school shootings.

Kai, from Boulder, Colorado, said: "When you pick up the gun, it scans the user's fingerprint. If it's a match with the gun owner's, the user is free to fire.

"If the fingerprint does not match, the trigger locks.

"The sensor is designed to prevent children picking up a misplaced weapon and discharging it.

"It could also help to reduce the number of shootings that take place via illegally obtained firearms."

SUNNY DELIGHT: Brits flocked to seaside to enjoy warmer weather

AUTIES!

April mini-heatwave brings 'em out

FOR the south of England at least, it's been a week of soaring temperatures, blazing sunshine and even folk at the seaside.

Temperatures reached 77 degrees, more than 10 degrees above the average for the time of year, with parts of the UK likely to be hotter than Spain, Italy and Greece.

In London, 12 jurors at the Old Bailey begged the judge for an early finish at 3pm and the request was swiftly granted.

Elsewhere, sun worshippers had the chance to enjoy the unseasonal warm spell – heading for the beach in resorts like Bournemouth and Weymouth.

Traditionally, many would also head to the south coast resort of Brighton but the city is now under the control of the Green Party, who ruin nice weather by whining about polar bears and icebergs and shit.

Our snappas even spotted a lucky bloke getting a BLOWJOB from his partner in the sun in Hyde Park, London.

Handy shandy game coming to Britain

A SAUCY gameshow where contestants belt out karaoke hits while being WANKED OFF is set to air on UK telly!

Jap show Sing What Happens Next requires contestants to hit each note PERFECTLY until they've been pleasured to completion – which includes the moment of actual orgasm.

In Japan, the show broadcasts on a premium channel.

Several candidates must sing a song and not get distracted by the young lady who is masturbating them.

Now several British companies are competing to bring the shock format show to Britain.

Thanks to our strict broadcasting laws, there is NO CHANCE of the show being shown on Saturday night primetime terrestrial TV.

But an adult broadcaster COULD show it, via a pay-per-view channel.

One TV insider said: "Simon Cowell would be a fool if he let this one go."

Manhunt for boob-stare train tosser

COPS are hunting a man who masturbated as he leered at a teen girl on a train.

He rubbed his groin and licked his lips suggestively, staring at her boobs as she recoiled in horror – fearing she was about to be attacked.

British Transport Police have now issued a CCTV picture of the train fiend (above).

The girl's ordeal unfolded on a train travelling between Cardiff Central and Exeter St Davids.

PC Christian Rooke said: "After boarding at Bristol Temple Mead station, the man took a seat next to a 19-year-old woman.

"While in the seat, he committed an indecent act. The woman moved away from him, and he left at Bridgwater.

"We are determined to deal with any incidents which are reported to us."

By NEIL GOODWIN

FIERY Anne Robinson has left fans speechless after watching a hard-core "double anal" PORN movie.

The Weakest Link presenter explored the world of grumble videos as part of a feminist documentary about their impact.

And red-head Anne – who had never even seen a bluey before – dived straight in at the deep end, watching GANGBANG scenes of taboo BUM LOVE.

Gob-smacked Anne, 70, is seen on screen watching the explicit action.

Erotic

At one point she exclaims: "Here's a woman with absolutely ginormous breasts. Good heavens.

"Hard Double Anal 3. Good lord!

"What puzzles me, I suppose, is how people find that erotic.

"It seems so crude and so far away from any fantasy about a loving sexual relationship."

Criticising the acting on show, she added: "I don't think Martin Scorcese is going to be signing them up any time soon."

While she labelled the skin flicks "tacky, corny, and predictable", she DOESN'T want so see them banned. Anne added: "Well, I don't have a judgement on them. If they're not harming anyone...

"I like a world where there are as few things banned possible."

IF you were a fan of glamour girls back in the late Eighties and early Nineties, you'll remember gorgeous Amanda Forbes.

For 13 years, Leicestershire-born Amanda was at the top of the business – not bad for a girl who was faced with early disappointment on her first attempt to break into modelling.

She arrived in London, aged 17, with £40 in her pocket, and a 15-minute appointment with a leading model agency.

"I barely got through the door and they turned me down," she says.

"They said I was 'the wrong colour'.

"I think that was my first experience of racism."

As a parting shot, the woman at the model agency suggested a crestfallen Amanda call in to see legendary Page Three photographer Beverley Goodway.

Cult

That launched Amanda into the Page Three stratosphere and the beginning of an exhilarating 13-year-long modelling career which sent her around the world.

She was soon in demand from all the top photographers – including the Queen's cousin, Lord Lichfield.

She appeared in the video for George Michael's 1987 hit single I Want Your Sex, was in cult TV show Baywatch and appeared in the 1990 movie The Rainbow Thief starring Omar Sharif and Peter O'Toole.

The movie also featured fellow glamour legends Rachel Garley and Linzi Drew.

But the modelling work dried up and Amanda now lives quietly in Anstey, Leicestershire.

A PERVERT supply teacher who flashed pupils 20 times tried to kill himself – by setting his hair on fire.

Andrew Lemke, 22, was reported to police by one of the kids he taught in class.

The bizarre suicide attempt failed and Lemke – his singed head still smouldering – confessed to officers at his home in Gilbert, Arizona.

The arrest report states: "A male subject came to the door and stated, 'I'm the one. It's me, I did it'.

"I asked the man if his name was Andrew and he told me, 'Yes'. Andrew started telling me that he tried to kill himself because of the guilt.

"We noticed his hair was smouldering and called for an ambulance."

Lemke has since been charged with indecent exposure, endangering minors and arson.

Eva Thorpe says that, far from being a boggle-eyed, unworldly nerd, Mr Miliband, 45, is a searing-hot lover who can "touch a woman in undreamt-of places".

Divorced Eva, who lives in a caravan near Crewe, Cheshire, said: "I was having a pint in the Last Orders on Nantwich Road when this tall, mysterious bloke walked in.

"We got talking and he told me he was looking for a scrapyard where he could find a door seal for a 1997 Vauxhall Astra.

"Anyway, he forgot all about the door seal as the drink flowed and we ended up back in my flat.

"He stayed a week. We only got out of bed to go to the toilet or answer the door to the pizza man.

"He touched me in ways no other man has ever touched me.

"When he left, I realised I didn't have his phone number, just a first name: Ed. I never thought I'd see him again. Then he popped up as leader of the Labour Party and potential PM.

"Imagine my surprise!"

Eva's otherwise-convincing story is undermined slightly by her insistence that the affair took place in September 2003, when Mr Miliband was at the Centre for European Studies at Harvard University in the US.

However, in recent weeks, the socialist Labour leader has emerged as an unlikely lothario.

The respected Daily Mail revealed that before marrying wife Justine, Mr Miliband had actually dated OTHER WOMEN, including the BBC economics editor Stephanie Flanders.

STAR WARS EXCLUSIVE

Han Solo killed my kitten!

FAN: Gary Borman

A STAR Wars fan got so overexcited watching a trailer for the new movie he fell off his chair – fatally crushing his kitten.

Gary Borman, 45, of Chapel-en-le-Frith, Derbys, was watching a teaser for The Force Awakens, the seventh instalment of the space saga, which was released on Thursday.

But the two-minute clip – which shows a crashed Imperial battle cruiser, an X-wing fighter and supervillain Darth Vader's helmet – worked single model shop worker Gary into a frenzy.

Gary said: "I think I may have had a glass or two of cider so when I saw the Star Wars trailer had been posted online, I was dead excited.

"I was bouncing up and down on the chair in front of my computer. When Han Solo and Chewbacca came on screen I leapt in the air.

"But I landed back on my seat with a thump, slipped off and fell on the floor – crushing my two-month-old kitten Yoda. He died instantly.

"So, in a very real sense, Han Solo killed my kitten."

Gary plans to start queuing to watch the film – which opens in December – "sometime in mid-November".

TEXT A RED HOT OLDER WOMAN TODAY! SHE'S SO UP FOR IT!

EXPERIENCE THIS!

TAKE a look...take a long, lingering look at Alice, here. Alice is one of our older girls. We'd have loved to have shown you her face and told you a lot more about her but, well, Alice is a pillar of her local community and aside from that, her husband of 32 years would not approve of her swapping sexual texts with horny strangers half her age!

Anyway, have a good look at what you can see...pretty tidy for a woman in her sixth decade, eh?

OK, there's a few lines but her tits are still perky and her tummy flat. Alice looks after herself, regularly treating herself to expensive lingerie and ensuring that her grooming regime is from head to toe. She's favoured a Brazillian before it had a name!

So, why does she enjoy sexual text encounters with strangers like YOU? Well, says Alice, it's all about new experiences.

"When people meet me they probably think I'm just some old, married fuddy duddy. They would never guess that when I was 19 I ran off with a biker gang and, ahem, once ENJOYED three of them at the same time," she laughed.

"I love my husband but I still like to share my experiences and experience some new ones so, come on you horny buggers, get texting me and give me something to finger myself about!"

Alice is typical of the women you'll text here. From yummy mummies in their early 40s to proper grey-haired grannies in their 70s, we've got the perfect oldie for you!

You can specify a type on your first text but remember to put the trigger word first. Or you can add your postcode and we'll put you in touch with someone local.

If you've never tried sex texting before, now's your chance...and you're guaranteed to get messages from a real older horny woman.

TELLY GEORGIA SPIT ROAST HELL

School blonde 'had sex with two teen lads'

A PRETTY female school worker has been arrested on suspicion of seducing at least two teenage boys – as young as 14.

Diane Blankenship, 45 (above), is accused of having sex with a 14-year-old lad in the backseat of her car while her friend drove them around town in December last year.

In a later incident, the school clerical worker allegedly had sex with a 17-year-old student at his house before school.

Detectives are currently investigating the possibility of other victims.

Blankenship was detained at her home in Tampa, Florida.

She has been charged with unlawful sexual activity and lewd battery.

A spokesman for Dayspring Academy, where she worked, said that Blankenship has been placed on "administrative leave".

No Dayspring students were involved, the spokesman said.

Women after bushes flasher

WORRIED women have set up a group to help catch a pervert who lurks in BUSHES pulling his pud at a beauty spot.

At least five women have been targeted by the man, who follows lone victims and then hides in undergrowth before exposing himself and hurling abuse.

The incidents have taken place on a disused railway which is part of the Great Northern Trail in Bradford, West Yorks.

Resident Julie Drake, from the local awareness group, said: "He followed one woman from the village store, overtook her and was waiting in bushes when she walked past.

"When she saw him she screamed out and he fled. It was terrifying."

GORGEOUS Georgia May Foote was BOMBARDED with lewd suggestions after she went onto Twitter to speak of her longing for a ROAST DINNER!

The 24-year-old, who until earlier this year played Katy Armstrong in Corrie, took to the social networking site and declared she fancied some good, home cooking.

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

But among her 252,000 followers are sick individuals who deliberately misunderstood her desire for a "roast".

Real ale fan Peter Lunn of Manchester warned: "Your gonna wish u rephrased that #Roasting"

Gareth Edwards of North Wales added: "Will a spit roast do…"

Presumably, Mr Edwards was obliquely referring to a sex act too upsetting to describe in a family newspaper.

The respected Urban Dictionary describes a "spit roast" as: "A sexual activity involving three people, two active males and one passive (male or female). Man 1 penetrates person 2 from the rear (anal or vaginal) while he/she sucks the penis of person 3."

A friend of Georgia's said: "It's a shame she cannot say she would like a meat and veg meal without someone suggesting she wants to be each-ended."

NEW SITCOM BABE IS TOPLESS

THE words "new ITV comedy" are unlikely to quicken many TV fans' pulses.

But The Delivery Man stars sexy actress Jennie Jacques as Nurse Tash.

And a very quick flick through the archives reveals the stunning actress got her heart-stoppingly lovely boobs out in the 2009 series Desperate Romantics.

The new show is scripted by Green Wing writers Robert Harley and James Henry – so may yet confound critics and actually be funny.

BIG BRO GOES B

Orgy porn babe Brooklyn is set for new series

By TOM RHODES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

TELLY bosses are braced for another ratings-busting series of Big Brother amid rumours a PORN STAR will enter the house this summer.

Adult film babe Brooklyn Blue is one of several contestants reportedly approached to take part in the reality show.

The 23-year-old nympho is one of the UK's most successful performers, having featured in HUNDREDS of raunchy flicks, including Television X's controversial Friends With Benefits Street.

Brooklyn, from south London, is also famous for her taboo sex scenes, including:

- FACIAL COMPLETION
- PUBLIC SEX
- GIRL-ON-GIRL ACTION
- THREESOMES
- GANGBANGS

The reports are unconfirmed, but sources claim that Channel 5 execs are now DESPERATE to sign her up.

A good friend of Brooklyn told Sunday Sport: "In the past, Brooklyn has said she'd love to do Big Brother.

"She's got a big personality and has already featured on reality shows like Tool Academy and Snog, Marry, Avoid.

"She's a natural in front of the camera and isn't afraid to express her opinions.

"She's been keeping really quiet about Big Brother, which is strange because she's normally so outspoken.

"Considering she's done similar programmes before, it wouldn't surprise me at all if Brooklyn showed up on launch night.

"She would definitely make for HOTTER telly than last year's boring contestants!

"I guess we'll just have to wait and see what happens."

A spokesman for Channel 5 said: "We don't comment on rumours about potential housemates."

MAN BONKS DOG...SENDS VIDEO TO HIS GIRL

Tech blunder lands pervert in court

A MAN was dumped by his girlfriend when he accidentally sent her a video of himself shagging the DOG.

Depraved David Buchanan decided to romp with the pet Rhodesian Ridgeback as he watched porn at home while his missus worked.

He filmed the sickening act on a tablet – without realising it was automatically linked to her mobile phone.

The woman was horrified when a 29-second clip started playing on her handset that showed him having sex with the 10-month-old pet.

She immediately called the police and Buchanan, 34, of Fairford, Glos, was arrested and charged with sexual assault on March 7.

He admitted the offence and was ordered to register as a sex offender for seven years.

Keith Ballinger, prosecuting, told magistrates in Swindon, Wilts: "This comes to light because it is reported by his then partner.

"She was at work and received on her mobile a 29-second video clip that showed him having sex with their 10-month-old dog.

"When arrested he said he had been at home watching porn and wondered what it would be like to have sex with the dog."

Ellen McAnaw, defending, said: "He now spends most of his time at home drawing or playing XBox. He doesn't have many friends."

Marathon bus wank perv jailed

A MAN who WANKED on a bus for three quarters of an hour has slapped with a 14-month sentence.

Patrick Porter, of Londonderry, pleaded guilty to committing an act outraging public decency on June 22 last year.

The incident took place on a Bus Eireann service travelling to the Ulster city from Dublin.

It was captured on CCTV and lasted 40 to 45 minutes.

Derry Crown Court heard the 39-year-old has two previous convictions for exposure.

This involved Porter masturbating in a car parked in the student village of Magee University, Londonderry.

Passing sentence, Judge Philip Babington said the incident on the bus was "serious and disgusting behaviour" and said Porter needs to be deterred from such behaviour again.

He imposed the 14-month sentence, half of which will be spent in custody and half on licence.

Car park dog bummer caged

A MAN who kidnapped a dog in a car park and went off to BUM it has been jailed.

Jose Vasquez, 47, asked several people if the dog belonged to them, after spotting it wandering around a hotel parking lot.

He eventually coaxed the animal into his vehicle before the pair drove off to the far corner of the car park.

When the mutt's owners turned up looking for their pet they were directed to Vasquez's car – and found him balls-deep in the animal.

Vasquez fled the scene, but was caught by police a short time later in Wilmington, North Carolina.

He was sentenced to a year in prison after pleading guilty to crimes against nature.

STARK MESSAGE: Putin ordered his sailors to moon

Putin's navy MOONS Britain during war games in English Channel

RELATIONS between London and Moscow sank to an all-time low last night after it emerged Russian sailors had been ordered to bare their ARSES at Britain.

Tars aboard the destroyer Severomorsk were spotted mooning the south coast of Britain as the heavily-armed warship sneaked through the Channel on its way to war games in the Atlantic.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Our EXCLUSIVE picture shows one, probably drunk, Russian pulling down his pants and baring his claggy Ivan arse as his ship passed the White Cliffs of Dover.

ACTION STATIONS: HMS Argyll

Invasion

One military strategist said: "Baring your behind is the ultimate military insult which goes back to the 13th century when William Wallace's Scottish rebels bared theirs at the English army.

"By ordering his sailors to moon Britain, Vladimir Putin is delivering a stark message to Britain – we don't care a hoot for your ability to defend yourselves.

"This is a clear preliminary to full-scale invasion."

Last Wednesday, Britain faced the most concerted Russian test of our defences since the depths of the Cold War.

Fighter jets were scrambled after the sighting of two Russian nuclear bombers near UK airspace, hours after three Russian ships – including the Severomorsk – entered the English Channel and HMS Argyll leapt into action.

It comes at a time of tense relations between London and Moscow over the crisis in Ukraine and the inquiry into the death of Russian ex-spy Alexander Litvinenko.

Russia said the ships were last week en route to the North Atlantic, for "anti-air and anti-submarine defence" exercises.

Topless protest video MP in hot water

NOW this would liven up the election debate – politicians getting NAKED!

Liberal Czech MP Ester Kaplankova has got her kit off for a campaign video in an apparent protest against high taxes imposed by the government.

After getting right down to her birthday suit as the eerie music plays, Ms Kaplankova poses with a newspaper covering her pert breasts.

The advert then turns a lighter tone when the music changes to a happy guitar riff and the young politician can be seen covered in her party's flag – with a big smile on her face.

The vid has drawn plenty of attention to the The Party of Free Citizens in the Czech Republic, but not EVERYONE is over-the-moon with it.

The party's leader, Petr Mach, was reportedly furious after the video went viral – when Ms Kaplankova uploaded it to her Facebook page and he later demanded for it to be removed.

He raged: "We asked Ms Kaplankova to delete the video or to publish it without our official graphics and logo.

"Somebody could say it was too much."

Paris public transport is your ticket to harassment!

ALL women travelling on public transport in Paris have been victims of sexual harassment, shock figures have revealed.

A study found that 100 percent of the 600 women in Seine-Saint-Denis and Essonne, two areas in the outer suburbs of Paris, said they had experienced at least some form of gender-based harassment while riding the train.

The High Council for Equality between Women and Men (HCEfh) defined "gender harassment" as "words and behaviour that are intended to create a situation that is intimidating, humiliating, degrading, or offensive".

Frenchmen see women as almost entirely as sex objects – a consequence of the fact that almost every Frenchman's mother has, at some time, worked as a prostitute.

Margaux Collet, spokeswoman for Osez Le Féminsme (Dare Feminism), said it was high time that France implemented anti-groping regulations.

She said: "The problem is that harassment on public transport has basically been trivialised. The figures are shocking. "

COFFEE COCK-UP

AN oddball who got his cock out in Dunkin' Donuts was not hard to trace...seconds earlier he'd used his credit card to pay for coffee in the New York store.

FOR THE LAST TIME... I'M NOT PIERS MORGAN!

SUNDAY Sport EXCLUSIVE

Fed-up tramp is mistaken for telly host

DOWN-ON-HIS-LUCK Davey Buchanan is not the sort of person to gripe about his lot and rarely indulges in self-pity.

But one of the ex-bricklayer's many misfortunes in life rankles more than most…

He's the spitting image of PIERS MORGAN!

Sleeping rough in a Manchester doorway is a walk in the park compared to a string of inquisitive passersby pointing out his uncanny resemblance to the outspoken journalist and TV personality.

Threat

Davey, 46, who keeps up his spirits with a diet of sherry and strong lager, said: "I can take the sub-zero temperatures, hooligans pissing on my shoes in the middle of the night and the constant threat of contracting tuberculosis.

"But looking like Piers Morgan is just too much for flesh and blood to bear."

Modern technology has added to twice-divorced Davey's woes. He lamented: "I get a steady stream of people turning up wanting to pose for a selfie with me.

"They are convinced that I'm Piers Morgan making some undercover programme about the homeless.

"Are they fking daft? Why would the millionaire Morgan be sitting in the rain and piss of a Manchester kerbside?"

The real Piers Stefan Pughe-Morgan, 50, is currently appearing on the ITV breakfast show Good Morning Britain alongside the delicious Susanna Reid.

The former Fleet Street editor carved a successful TV career after being sacked by the Daily Mirror in 2004 following a furore over the publication of fake photos purporting to show British soldiers abusing detainees in Iraq.

Morgan is also famous for being hit by Jeremy Clarkson at the British Press Awards in 2004.

DEANO ON SUNDAY

TWO YEARS ago, I watched a brilliant television series made by former Tomorrow's World presenter James Burke, called The Day the Universe Changed.

In the final episode – this was 1985 – he predicted how one day computers would allow us to broadcast our thoughts and opinions to the world.

Burke insisted this would be a Good Thing – almost a return to the direct democracy of ancient Greece.

The egghead had, without knowing it, correctly foreseen Twitter.

So, is Twitter a Good Thing?

Well, last week, the social media site was used to bombard the TV presenter Sue Perkins with abuse – and even death threats – because she was mentioned as a replacement for Jeremy Clarkson on Top Gear.

Burke thought that instant, global communication would be a real boon for society.

He was wrong.

Because many of the people who are given the miraculous ability to communicate with the rest of the human race at the push of a button are ctish halfwits.

Lies are OK – but sossie rolls are a no-no

THE UKIP candidate for the Southampton Itchen constituency faced a police probe the other day because he provided some sausage rolls and Jaffa cakes at a public meeting in a community centre.

Kim Rose had to report to cops who were investigating allegations of "treating" – a criminal offence under electoral law which stops the "bribing" of voters.

I've no idea who reported Rose but my guess is some prodnose Labour or Green Party arsehole with a huge ego and an underdeveloped sense of proportion.

Police have seen this for what it is and declared no more action would be taken.

But you have to think it's a rum world where a candidate can get his collar felt for electoral bribery over a couple of sausage rolls – but the national parties can offer all sorts of inducements and get away with it.

The Tories have offered extensions of free childcare (I get to pay even more for other people's ct-turds), frozen rail prices and cheap houses.

Labour are offering – oh, look – just about the same only with a boost in the minimum wage.

The Liberals are offering… who cares?

But here's the difference: when Kim Rose offered Jaffa cakes and sausage rolls to voters, they got Jaffa cakes and sausage rolls.

Will voters ever see the goodies that the parties are offering in return for being elected?

Probably not.

We live in a mad country at times.

It's illegal to lay on food and drink at a public election meeting – it's quite OK to lie your way into power and welsh on all your promises.

Sterling case is laughable

FOOTBALLER Raheem Sterling found himself all over the papers – and even TV news – because someone leaked footage of him inhaling nitrous oxide.

The gas is described as "hippy crack" by The Sun newspaper because its usual common name – laughing gas – doesn't sound half as terrifying.

Throughout the Sun piece, nitrous oxide was described as though it was only a peg or two below ricin in the league of deadly substances.

In fact, it's so "deadly" they give it to women who are shitting out babes.

We were gravely informed that 17 people died of inhaling nitrous oxide in the last decade. This is, of course, a tragedy for the people involved. But when you consider that more than 8,000 people are killed by booze every year, nitrous oxide doesn't seem quite such a menace.

In fact, more people are killed by PEANUTS.

The papers are missing the real scary thing about this story.

We are told that Sterling is a "role model" for young people.

If silly, overpaid young arseholes with more money than sense are role models in our society, our minds have been addled by something a lot more potent than laughing gas.

BLOOMING MARVELLOUS!

Babes from posh film about flowers get their buds out

UNLESS we pull a posh bird who is into period dramas, there is little chance we'll see new movie A Little Chaos.

Alan Rickman's flick is about some old French King who wants a posh garden building.

Think Ground Force with powdered wigs.

But there are a couple of things to think about which could make viewing it more bearable.

One of its stars Kate Winslet, who plays landscape gardener Sabine De Barra, is a veteran of the knockers-out scene.

The 39-year-old Oscar winner most-famously heaved 'em out in the mega sinking-boat flick Titanic.

And Jennifer Ehle (no, we don't know how to pronounce it, either) plays Madame de Montespan, King Louis XIV's favourite mistress.

And she kindly stripped for 1980s TV series The Camomile Lawn.

One film critic said: "If my mates found out I'd been to see A Little Chaos, they'd take the piss. Unless I said I'd only gone to get my dick wet."

NAVY MAN HAD FETISH FOR WATERPROOFS

WATER WEIRDO: Alan Reynolds

A FORMER senior Royal Navy sailor has avoided jail after stealing waterproof clothes to feed his sexual fantasies of being a PRISONER OF WAR.

Alan Reynolds developed the bizarre fetish after his career as a lieutenant commander at sea.

His enjoyment of wearing other people's clothing – particularly waterproofs – grew after leaving the Navy in 1993.

At Truro Crown Court, Judge Simon Carr sentenced him to 15 months in prison, suspended for two years.

Reynolds took pictures and filmed himself wearing layers of clothes he had stolen during a burglary at Russ Pierre's home in Sennen, Cornwall.

At a previous court hearing he apologised about his fantasies, which he admitted were based around being taken by the enemy during conflict.

Reynolds told the court: "I get sexual gratification out of the feeling of the waterproof clothing on my skin. I know it's irrational and I'm sorry."

He was found guilty after a trial of burgling Mr Pierre's home in December 2013 and stealing items of clothing including jackets and shoes.

The court also heard Reynolds had previous convictions for theft, burglary, stealing clothing and blackmail.

THE face of a new government advert campaign pushing public transport is a GAY PORN star.

By day, Joe Kearney features in X-rated homosexual movies – under his stage name of Tom Long.

He's also the face of an ad campaign for the multi-purpose public transport Leap Card.

One poster, which says "Now your Leap Card can top itself up", is aimed at promoting family travel.

Hipster

Dressed in a knitted jumper and shirt, his full beard gives the ad a hipster-family feel.

But Joe's work with ultra-strong bumming site Hard Brit Lads features far less clothes, in which he takes part in steamy sex scenes with other men.

A profile on the Hard Brit Lads website describes Co Kerry-born Kearney as a "rugged" Irishman.

It goes on to say: "Super handsome Irish lad, Tom Long, has strong, dark, rugged features, with piercing eyes and a square jaw.

"And a massive package in his shiny sports shorts."

Kearney, who now lives in Amsterdam, declined to comment on his current career and his decision to move into the gay porn movie industry.

It's not known if the authorities in the Republic of Ireland, where the Leap Card is promoted, are aware of Kearny's "other" work.

BRIT GIRLS SELLING SEX IN THE GULF

I came to Dubai for my gap year ...AND I STAYED!

WORKING GIRL: Pretty Amanda White is saves Dubai sex cash for future studies

ACROSS Britain, thousands of eager A-level students will soon be sitting exams which will determine whether or not they get into university this autumn.

Others – mainly rich, spoiled little bastards – will be taking a "gap year" where they will travel around the fking world for the next 12 months pretending to find out about foreign culture and shit.

But a gap year is not all about getting stoned in Thailand or buying a stupid hat in Peru.

Hookers

Because an increasing number of female British students are taking a break from their studies – to earn money as hookers!

And there's only one destination for the aspiring young courtesan... DUBAI.

Over the past decade, the Gulf emirate has become a playground for the rich and famous with an insatiable demand for taut-bodied young women to slake the baser desires of film stars, tycoons and even Arab royalty.

Thousands of working girls have found the streets of the desert state are paved not with sand and camel shit – but with GOLD.

Among them is 22-year-old Amanda White, originally from Knutsford, Cheshire.

From a good, middle-class home, Amanda decided to travel to Dubai after taking her A-levels, hoping to make some money as a "hostess" before heading to university.

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But after discovering there were rich pickings to be had selling sex, she decided to stay in the Gulf.

Amanda told Sunday Sport: "If I was back at home, I'd be on some godawful graduate training scheme and worrying about all the debt I'd racked up at university.

"As it is, I'm now making the equivalent of £45,000-a-year, and it's TAX FREE.

"A couple more years of this and I can go back to Britain with a decent amount of money in the bank.

"If I want to restart my studies, I can. I certainly won't need to take out a student loan."

The flight of middle-class lasses to the bordellos of faraway Araby – nicknamed the "Minge Drain" , as opposed to the brain drain – comes as authorities report a surge in students taking up prostitution to make ends meet.

Tuition

The English Collective of Prostitutes, which runs a helpline from its base in London, said the number of calls it receives from students has at least doubled in the past year.

Sarah Walker from the organisation has seen a steady increase in calls from students over the past 10 years.

But she said her group had received an unprecedented number of calls since the government's announcement that universities in England could charge tuition fees of up to £9,000 a year from 2012.

BUSTY BETH'S SET TO GO BIG DOWN UNDER

NEWCOMER Beth Lily BUST onto the glamour scene last year.

But the blonde babe is already making a huge splash.

In her short time topless modelling, 32G-26-36 Beth has made fans from all over the world – and is now set on conquering Australia!

The 18-year-old from Loughton, Essex – who already has thousands of followers on Twitter – said: "It's been crazy. It seems that I've been working flat out for the last few months.

"I'm not complaining though, of course.

"This is what I've always wanted to do and it's just as amazing as I hoped it would be."

Surprisingly, this is Beth's first time in Sunday Sport – so to mark the occasion, we've made her this week's coveted Cover Girl.

FAKING IT

FRANKIE: I usually fake it when I feel bad for him. If he's trying his best but it's never going to happen. Plus, I just don't want to hurt his feelings.
CLARE: That's nice of you. I've faked too – everybody has. It's either fake an orgasm or find yourself in a really awkward situation.

And if I'm not going to orgasm, it's easier to get it over with – especially when he's more excited than I am.

If it's with your boyfriend you can say something, but in a first-time situation there's not much you can do apart from make them feel good and hope they're better next time.

FIRST-TIME SEX

FRANKIE: Mine was OK. It was just a little awkward. I didn't really know what I was doing and it was a bit uncomfortable. It was over quite quickly.
CLARE: My first time was really nice. I'd been seeing a guy for about two years and I was with him one night when we walked past a hotel.

We both looked at each other and were both thinking the same thing. We booked a room, which he paid for, and it was a lovely suite.

He was a real gentlemen. He wasn't a virgin so he was really considerate to me. He was very attentive and it was good. We stayed in bed all the next morning.

BEST SEX

CLARE: It was with a guy who I met after a comedy gig. We got a taxi back to his and the sex was amazing, REALLY amazing.

We left the club at 2am and I was up until about 6am. From his first touch, it felt like he really knew me. He was very good in bed and had been with a lot of women.

He was very attentive to what I wanted and was just interested in pleasing me. It wasn't just that, we just worked really well.
FRANKIE: Mine was probably last year with my boyfriend. He took me out for dinner and it was really, really nice. It built up the romantic feel and got me ready for sex. And when we did, it was worth the wait. It was all about me, me, me!

WILLY SIZE

CLARE: Yes, it matters. But saying that, a lot of men don't know how to use what they've got. If you've got something bigger, it's going to aid the situation.
FRANKIE: I would say the same thing. Having a bigger one helps. I've heard horror stories from friends who have experienced small willies.
CLARE: I've heard some horrendous stories about diddy dicks! It matters less if he's got a big willy but he doesn't know how to use it, than if he was small and rubbish.

If they're big, they don't have to put as much effort it. I would want a good eight inches.
FRANKIE: I'd say about seven or eight inches.

OUTDOOR SEX

CLARE: I once had sex in an old church. My boyfriend was at university in Plymouth and I'd gone to visit him. We were out camping and he asked me what I thought about the church. I said it was okay.

He took me inside it and he had put out candles, which is foreplay to him. It had no roof so it was fing freezing!
FRANKIE: My first fella lived in London in a massive house and he had a wood in his garden. We went for a wander and ended up having sex in the wood. It was exciting. There were people walking past but they were about 50 metres away. I don't think they saw us.

FAVE POSITION

FRANKIE: I would say missionary. I enjoy it, it's an easy position and he does all the hard work. It's the position I get the most pleasure from.
CLARE: I like a guy on top. It makes me feel more feminine. I like it too because they are the dominant one and I like it when they're in control.

TURN-ONS

CLARE: I like tall guys. And a guy has got to be able to handle me. I don't want a weedy guy who won't stand his ground and argue back. I like good foreplay – good foreplay means good sex.
FRANKIE: I like a guy to massage my head and play with my hair.
CLARE: Playing with my hair turns me on.

FRANKIE: Kissing my neck turns me on, too.

DRESSING UP

FRANKIE: I've never dressed up, but I would like to.
CLARE: A maid's outfit would suit you.
FRANKIE: I'd like to be a policewoman. I could have the handcuffs and kinky boots, then I'd be the one in control.
CLARE: I've got a nurse's outfit. When I wore it for my boyfriend he was shocked. I bought it for my sister's hen night of couple of years ago and he didn't even know I had it.

He came home from uni and I was just stood there wearing it. He seemed pretty pleased, to be honest! We did the whole roleplay thing. I pretended to be the naughty nurse and he was the patient. We got up to all sorts that night.

If I was really a nurse and he was my patient, I'd have been struck off for what we did!

SPIT OR SWALLOW?

CLARE: I spit. I think it's just dirty. And it tastes disgusting. Some taste worse than others.
FRANKIE: I spit. I just don't like the thought of swallowing.
CLARE: It makes me gag.
FRANKIE: I try to be subtle about it.
CLARE: So you don't just spit it out in front of him?
FRANKIE: No, of course not.
CLARE: As long as the lad is getting a blowjob, I don't think he minds either way!

'A real nurse would've been struck off for what we did!'

EVA PARKER

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

STUNNA Eva Parker was glued to the telly last Monday as the new series of Game Of Thrones started.

The 34E, top-heavy babe said: "I'm absolutely addicted to GoT – I even turned down a hot date with a hunky fella to be at home in front of the telly!

"I know it sounds a bit sad but I don't get much 'me' time because of all my modelling and it's important not to get overwhelmed with work."

But once the fantasy show was over, 21-year-old Eva was in need of some male company.

She said: "Game Of Thrones gets me so horny – it's full of sex – so I called the guy who I'd earlier knocked back and asked him to get round to mine ASAP – and to bring his hard cock with him!"

BOOBS ON THE BOX

Britain's only naked TV guide with SIMON DEAN

TODAY

C5, 10.55pm, Drive Angry – Boobs, bums, minge... the lot. Christa Campbell provides most of the naked skin. Have a look at 13 minutes. Splop!
Horror Channel, 11.05pm, The Watermen – Ashley Myers and Joy Glass indulge in a little lesbian doings. And there's plenty of boob-out action too.
Horror Channel, 12.55pm, Inhuman Resources – I have it on good authority that Kelly Paterniti exposes her lovely orbs of joy, though I don't have any timings.

TOMORROW

Film4, 9pm, Double Jeopardy – Ashley Judd's jugs are on show just seven minutes into this clever thriller
True Entertainment, 11pm, Killer Instinct – Four whole minutes into this one and you get a full look at Bridgette Brooks fine breasts.

TUESDAY

Horror Channel, 2.15am, The Abandoned – Marta Yaneva goes fully naked in this creepy horror flick.
Film4, 11.15pm, Before the Devil Knows You're Dead – Take a bow, Marisa Tomei. The Brooklyn-born stunna whips 'em out at 14 minutes (below) and continues proving the fap fodder throughout.

WEDNESDAY

BBC1, 11.15pm, Insomnia – Crystal Lowe shows off boobs and beaver at eight minutes. The downside is that she's playing a corpse, so not very sexy. Unless you're a weirdo.
ITV4, 12.15am, Born on the Fourth of July – Cordelia Gonzalez plays a Mexican hooker who does the business for Tom Cruise's crippled character at 1hr 43. To be honest, it's a lot of very heavy going for a pair of teats.
Horror Channel, 12.45am, Bread-crumbs – Zoe Sloane making a porn movie. Well worth staying up into the middle of the night for.

THURSDAY

Horror Channel, 9pm, Blue Steel – The delicious Jamie Lee Curtis shopws off her arse and even her bush at 1hr 27 mins.
Sci-Fi/Horror, 11.15pm, Starship Troopers – The shower scene in this movie (right) is cimematic nudity history. By the end, you'll be bleeding from your chap's eye.
Select, 10pm, Northern Soul – Antonia Thomas continues that wonderful northern tradition of getting 'em out while being scuttled in a car.
Select, 1.40am, Magnolia – Melora Walters has them out in a bedroom romp at seven minutes. Big busters, these.

FRIDAY

ITV3, 12.35am, Ray – Bit of a peep at Aunjanue Ellis's boobs at one hour seven minutes while in the sack with Jamie Foxx, playing Ray Charles.
Movie Mix, 12.55am, Body Double – Billed as an erotic thriller, this is obviously running with nudity. Barbara Crampton kicks off the fun five minutes in.

Welcome to the world famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice or experience of our own Agony Angels! This week stunning Jaymie Feather has been reading your letters. Here's her advice...

Dear Jaymie,

MY wife and I went away on holiday to Spain recently.

She's 36 and pretty fit but we don't often have sex these days.

On our first night, when we had finished our meal, she said she felt tired and just wanted to go back to the hotel room and get some sleep.

I said I would go for a beer in the town and try not to disturb her when I got back later.

After a few beers at various bars I went into one where I got talking to a young English girl.

She, like my wife, was a bit of a flirt, and after some saucy banter she offered to take me outside with her.

On the beach, we sank down behind an upturned boat and she tugged down my shorts.

This gorgeous blonde babe went to work, licking and sucking on my length and cradling my balls in her hands as I lay on the sand.

We were both well-worked up by the time I dropped to my knees to peel off her G-string with my teeth.

She had a bush that was trimmed neatly with a landing strip and I slid my tongue into her fanny.

I was a bit worried about the time but I managed to bend her over and give her a right good seeing-to.

But imagine my surprise when I went down to breakfast the next morning with the wife, an I found out the girl I had shagged was our waitress!

She blabbed to the wife, who's now not talking to me.

What shall I do?

RE, Bath

Jaymie says...

SAY sorry and book another trip.

I love to watch wife shagging other men

Dear Jaymie,

I GET a massive big thrill out of watching my missus shagging other men – and she's happy to oblige.

One memorable time I had a good tug watching her shag one of my drinking mates from the local boozer.

For me there is no sight more thrilling than that of another man's arse bouncing up and down as he slides balls-deep inside the wife.

I love to hear her grunting and groaning and moaning in pleasure with a hard dick in her mouth or going in and out of her wet hole.

So when we ran into some financial problems recently, I suggested we start to charge men to shag her through an adult sex website.

To my surprise, my wife protested, even though she enjoys being shagged by other fellas.

She said taking money in exchange would make her feel like a prostitute.

I said I'd deal with the cash while she did the rest.

Eventually, she agreed and on her first day "in business" she got it from seven paying punters.

I wasn't allowed in the same room as them, so I cut a little peephole in the wall so I could watch and pull the end off it.

There was one middle-aged guy who wanted my wife to stick a dildo up his arse and call him "Diana".

But by and large it was straight sex or a sloppy blowjob.

By the end of the first week I'd seen my wife shagged back and front by 30 blokes.

After two weeks, though, my wife seemed to lose the sparkle she always had for sex.

She told me to delete her from the website and that was an end to it all.

But that very same night she brought a male friend from work home with her and proceeded to shag him in the lounge while I watched.

Is she being a bit hypocritical?

LM, Bristol

Jaymie says…

NO – there's a world of difference between sex for fun and sex for money.

Letter of the day

Dear Jaymie,

I RECENTLY got off with our doctor's receptionist and went back to her place for a spot of afternoon fun.

She's 50 but looks younger and has great boobs and a nice plump arse.

AT her house, she lay on the couch and spread her legs – exposing her fanny.

I was rock-hard in a minute and we had fast and furious sex together.

I've seen her a few times since and she told me her hubby likes her to see other men and wants to make a film of us shagging.

Should I go along with it?

JK, West Yorks

Jaymie says…

SOUNDS a bit weird to me. Stay well away.

Dear Jaymie,

I'M a 22-year-old girl and I work in a large office with four other women – and 20 blokes.

I've only been there for a few months but I've managed to shag six of the fellas already.

It's not that I'm a slag or anything – I just love sex.

I had my first office jump with the manager, two days after I started. I bonked his brains out on a quiet stairwell.

Then I hit if off with his deputy. Those two are both in their early 40s, but the next shag was with a 20-year-old hunk who started on the same day as me.

He was the best because he shafted me doggy-style for a good 30 minutes.

The other women call me the office bike.

How can I put an end to this tittle-tattle?

CB, Cornwall

Jaymie says…

GO easy and be a more selective.

Dear Jaymie,

I'M a big fan of EastEnders but my girlfriend is a Coronation Street nut who records all the episodes on Sky Plus so she can view them over and over.

I think she's crackers but she lets me do her up the bum once a week – and I realise we all have to make some sacrifices.

Having sat through all these episodes, I'm picking up a Mancunian accent.

Any advice?

NA, West Mids

Jaymie says…

COUNT yourself lucky that she's not into watching old episodes of Crossroads!

NOW that the warm weather is here, every open space is throbbing with lycra-clad folk jogging up and down.

Usually, it is some middle-aged middle-management wanker who spends approximately seven minutes pretending he's that bloody Mo Farah before struggling home on bent legs with a serious ballbag strain.

But occasionally, there are some rather saucy young ladies working up a good sweat in the park.

We must remember one golden rule though: on no account must you EVER touch!

Since the advent of feminism and "political correctness gone mad", goosing women in gym kit is ill-advised and, in some areas, may be illegal.

Sex beast returned for another go on goat

A MAN who spent two months in jail for sex with a goat scuttled the SAME ANIMAL just hours after being released.

Mafanele Mafanele, 39, of Chiredzi, Zimbabwe, was sentenced to 60 days behind bars after being caught hanging out of the back of a neighbour's nanny goat in December.

So the judge gave a resigned sigh when Mafanele turned up in the dock again, facing a complaint that he'd fallen for the lady goat's charms a second time.

Prosecutor Prosper Chipangura told the court that on March 23 this year at Makhosiya Village in Chilonga, Mafanele came across his neighbour's goats grazing unattended in the fields.

By HAZEL GROVE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Dirty

The court heard that he then chased them and caught the she-goat with which he'd had sex in December.

He then removed his trousers and repeated his sexual escapades with the animal.

He was caught by a shocked passer-by, who apprehended him and handed him over to the police.

Mafanele pleaded guilty after his lawyer unsuccessfully tried to have him declared bonkers.

Magistrate Geraldine Mutsoto gave him a further six months behind bars.

Mafanele was initially sentenced to 12 months, but Mutsoto suspended half of that for five years – on condition he doesn't return to his goal-loving ways.

Mutsoto told the defendant: "The one thing you have going in your favour is loyalty – at least you stuck to the same goat.

"You are a dirty man. I hope they thrash you in prison."

Jimmy has his sights on 500

CRICKET

JIMMY Anderson has been urged to aim for 500 Test wickets after finally breaking Ian Botham's record.

The Lancashire paceman passed Beefy's mark of 383 against the West Indies this week.

But England bowling legend Bob Willis reckons Jimmy should keep going.

He said: "Fitness allowing, there's nothing to stop Jimmy going on to take 500 Test wickets.

"I'm sure he'll want to do that; England play an awful lot of Test cricket and if he can keep mind and body together, he's capable of achieving something even more special than he has already."

And Botham was quick to praise the man who has eclipsed him at the top of England's bowling tree.

He said: "I'm delighted for him because he is a quite magnificent bowler.

"This record has been a burden for him and for me.

"He was always going to go past it – I've said that for a year-and-a-half now.

"These skills take a long time to develop. I've been lucky enough to be in the commentary box for pretty much all of Jimmy's career.

"I've witnessed him take all of those wickets and continually take them."

RHINOS START TITLE CHARGE

RUGBY LEAGUE

LEEDS Rhinos coach Brian McDermott has warned his Super League rivals that his team are only just warming up — despite being clear at the top of the table.

The Rhinos gave St Helens a 41-16 kicking on their own patch on Friday night.

But McDermott says there is much more to come from his rampant Rhinos.

The win put them six points clear at the top of the table but that's not good enough for the ambitious coach.

"We'd like to be eight clear, we'd like to be 10 clear.

"We're not looking behind us, we're looking forward and trying to get as many points as we can.

"I think everyone would say there's a bit more improvement in us."

And McDermott has told Leeds legend Kevin Sinfield that he still has a part to play in his side — despite being benched for the first time in 12 years.

The veteran is in his final season of rugby league before switching to the 15-man code.

McDermott added: "Kevin was very professional about it.

"He's 100 per cent behind us and he wants this team to do as good as it can do."

Rosberg running scared — again

FORMULA ONE

AFTER last week's bleating about Lewis Hamilton's tactics in the Shanghai Grand Prix, Nico Rosberg's backside is twitching again — this time about Ferrari.

The 29-year-old German is already 17 points behind Hamilton and knows he must pick up the pace in today's Bahrain race.

And rather than sweating about his Brit team-mate, he's now panicking about the form of the Italians.

Rosberg bleated: "We are very quick on one lap again and Ferrari are very dangerous on the long run.

"They have serious pace, which is very worrying. It looks like they are a genuine threat.

"In qualifying we are much quicker, but in the race they are quick."

Hamilton was a bit more upbeat about his chances.

He said: "The crucial part is we know we have speed in a qualifying lap, so it's more the speed on the race runs.

That's an area we're really trying to work on, but other than that the car has been feeling very good, I'm really happy with it."

GETTING ON: Freddie Roach reckons Floyd Mayweather is past his best

SAY YOUR PRAYERS MAYWEATHER!

TOP trainer Freddie Roach believes Floyd Mayweather Jr will be left legless when he faces Manny Pacquiao next month.

Pacman's trainer believes Father Time is catching up on the world's top fighter and convinced his man will expose him in the £300 million welterweight belter in Las Vegas on May 2.

There were signs that Mayweather might be slipping in his two wins against Marcos Maidana last year, and Roach insists: "Floyd's legs are betraying him.

"He has never wanted to engage because that is not his style.

Athlete

"But recently he has been forced to because he no longer can be on his toes for a full three minutes per round.

"He takes rests on the ropes and fights flatfooted more often.

"He is 38, and you can only put off Father Time for so long."

"Floyd is still an incredible athlete but he is not the same fighter he used to be and he knows that."

There have been reports of Mayweather suffering a busted lip and injuries, but is hiding from no one.

His Las Vegas gym doors are open to anybody, while Pacquiao who trains at Roach's famed Wild Card gym in Los Angeles is preparing for the richest fight in history behind closed doors.

Only a handful of his most trusted confidants are allowed in, and Roach explained: "This is such a big fight and getting the game plan right is so important. I felt it's critical we fight the right fight and to tell you the truth, it's been a lot better.

"Manny's getting a lot of great work in and I think it's been his best camp in a while because of it.

"There aren't a lot of people talking to him and interrupting and so forth, giving their opinion. Manny is getting his work done."

Mayweather's camp especially his father, Floyd Sr, have been dismissive of Pacquiao, but Roach knows the Filipino must deliver a flawless performance.

He said: "I don't want to take any chances, and we're definitely better off not having Manny getting distracted by all the people hanging out in the gym.

"It's all about boxing and the plan and that's what we're here to do at the end of the day."

WEMBLEY MATCH FOR BUGLIONI

BITTER enemies Frank Buglioni and Lee Markham will settle their beef next month.

They boxed twice as amateurs and had a win apiece, but Buglioni's WBO European super-middleweight title will be on the line at Wembley Arena on May 9.

Enfield's Buglioni (right) said: "This is a real grudge fight between Markham and me that had to happen. Full credit to him for taking it, he's wanted it for a few years and he's got it, which he may regret.

"Boxing is all about levels though and I know that I'm levels above him. I can outdo him in every department and better anything he brings. There's only winner in this fight and that's me, I'll stop him."

8/1 Big Ben to strike

RED HOT: Benteke

A VILLA v LIVERPOOL: 3PM, BT SPORT1

FULLY 25 points separate these two FA Cup semi finalists in the Premier League.

Sometimes it looks fair enough but since Tim Sherwood's arrival at Villa Park you can only think that gap is going to narrow.

Villa beat Liverpool at Anfield in September and will feel liberated by last week's win at Tottenham Hotspur, where Christian Benteke's eighth goal in six games took Tim Sherwood's team six points clear of the relegation zone.

Liverpool, however, are edging back into form and have won the last six of seven FA Cup ties between these clubs.

Daniel Sturridge's fitness and skipper Steven Gerrard's availability pose selection dilemmas for Brendan Rodgers.

Sturridge means so much to the Reds.

Poor little cash-strapped Raheem Sterling has meant a lot to the Liver Birds since Luis Suarez ate his last victim, but the Kop does not suffer fools gladly and Sterling's transfer shenanigans have started to turn the faithful against him.

Oh, how Anfield must ache for a fully fit Danny.

Some of us can remember when Liverpool supporters referred to Wembley as "our holiday home".

And while the neutrals wil crave an Arsenal v Liverpool final as the perfect barbeque-based finale for a closing soccer season, it is not guaranteed.

Liverpool made hard work of dispatching Bolton, they made harder work of disposing of Blackburn and while there is every conceivable reason to believe the collective talents of the Anfield mob will outwit those of Villa, the stakes are high and as Cole Porter once wrote "It Aint Necessarily So."

Therefore we fancy the draw inside 90 minutes. The odds certainly support that theory.

Liverpool are way too tiny at 8/13.

It's hard to see the Villans beating the Scousers, even at an admittedly tempting 11/2.

No . . . the value lies in a draw at a shade over 3/1, best price is 16/5 to be exact.

Benteke has enjoyed a new lease of life under Sherwood and the 8/1 about him scoring first (Sky, Boylesport and William Hill) isn't that shabby.

We advise him to smash the onion bag first before the Reds come to their senses and level late on. Philippe Coutinho is generally 15/2 to be the last scorer and in any event that seems fair.

He is not an out-and-out goalscorer but he continually shows a will to win going forward. Forever inventive, and a reasonable net threat, he remains our selection to dig the Reds out of the mucky stuff should fate take a downward turn early on against the Anfield faithful.

Correct score?

Well, these affairs rarely turn into a goal fest and while neither side can be described as water-tight defensively we think a 1-1 stalemate is your best bet.

SkyBet should be wearing a mask for their offer of 6/1 while rivals BetVictor go 15/2. Do us a favour and vote with your feet.

Much as we hate odds-on shots and much as 1/3 is skinnier than Kate Moss on a lettuce leaf diet, Liverpool will surely emerge as finalists.

If your bank balance is wider than your nerve, then, you know what to do in the 'qualify for the final' market.

BETS: Benteke to score first (8/1); a 1-1 draw in the 90 (15/2 BetVictor) Coutinho to score last (15/2).

MANCHESTER CITY v WEST HAM: 12.30, SKY SPORTS 1

IT should be a no-brainer, right?

The milti-millionaires of the Etihad versus those loveable, if ultimately under-achieving east end scamps. Where's the maths in that?

Well, we will fly in the face of the form book ad go with the happy Hammers.

City, by anyone's description, have imploded since the turn of the year.

You wouldn't want to break the bank for a West Ham season ticket but they are a honest team of grafters with a decent manager who instills a backbone that Frankenstein's monster would be proud of.

The Boleyn Ground fellas are not the easiest crowd to please but they are bloody loyal and in Allardyce they have a man after their own heart.

WORTH A BET: Allardyce's West Ham

You get 2/7 about a fading City and an amazing 12/1 (general) about the bubble-blowers. The draw is a frankly baffling 11/2. I mean, at that price, you are winning the second they kick off.

The other Sunday entertainment involves Newcastle v Spurs on Sky again at 4pm.

The Geordies are undeniably fragile but are we alone in thinking Tottenham have lost their way of late also?

The black-and-white stripes are a general 9/4; the Spuds are a best 7/5.

The logic says take the tie at 5/2.

BETS: West Ham to beat City (12/1); Newcastle v Spurs draw (5/2).

Lenson looks a Premier bet at 'Bourne

SOME cracking action tonight at Sittingbourne featuring some top-class open-races at the Kent venue that looks to have all the ingredients of being a brilliant nights racing.

It's highly recommended you get down to the track but for those that can't the action is live in all bookmakers shops.

Lenson Premier really impressed me last week in the heats of the Maiden competition and I'm taking him to land the final.

He was not the quickest heat winner but gave me the impression there was much more to come.

He can lead up the inside and if he turns in front then I will be shocked if he is beaten.

Beaten

He arrived in the UK with an impressive CV and from what I've seen so far in his UK career he can enhance his reputation even further over this side of the Irish Sea.

Tybar Hondo really caught my eye last week in victory but also the time before in defeat when he was beaten under 4L by Queen Mother Cup champion Touch Tackle.

He looks to have a great draw tonight and if he comes away in his best fashion again here then he will take some catching.

Con Te Partiro is always worth a second glance in hurdle contests, this former Irish star possesses great speed and although probably not the most natural jumper in the world he is formidable.

Sepp no match for Mandela!

WHAT do Jesus, Mandela and Churchill all have in common?

Well they're privileged to be in the company of a certain Sepp Blatter.

That is according to the various heads of the CONCACAF associations ahead of the FIFA presidential elections.

The names of Martin Luther King, Moses and Abraham Lincoln were also dropped in reference to the man who has brought us Christmas World Cup finals and allowed tournaments to be awarded to countries with shocking records for racism and anti-homosexual views.

Trinidad and Tobago Football Association described him as 'the father of football'.

I Maybe 'Godfather' would be more appropriate – and when I say that I'm thinking Marlon Brando As for 'father'?

Well Joseph Fritzl was a father wasn't he? I suppose you can't blame this particular branch of world football for backing Blatter like a battered wife stays with her abusive hubby.

I daresay he's 'looked after' them over the years.

I doubt he'll find such kind comparisons with famous figures this side of the globe however. Personally, mine start with Jimmy Savile – and get worse.

There was a novel scapegoat for a Champions League defeat last week. Porto shocked Bayern Munich with a first leg victory which was blamed on the Munich doctor!

72-year-old Hans-Wilhelm Muller-Wohlfahrt has resigned after 38 years in the role saying that he and his colleagues were being blamed for the 3-1 reverse.

PRESS GO STER CRAZY

WE'RE all used to our young footballers' fingers hovering over the self-destruct button, just as we are certain elements of the media nudging them to press it.

The latest is Raheem Sterling. OK so he (his agent) turned down a contract.

Suddenly sneaky video clips and snaps of him up to no good emerge.

On the anniversary of Hillsborough it was probably the last thing Liverpool fans want to be reading about and it's infuriating to see that, while us football fans are desperate to see the next Beckham or Scholes, all some members of our press seem hell bent on is find the next Best or Gascoigne.

MERV'S FACT HUNT

LAST week I asked: Which three Belgians have scored Premier League Hat Tricks so far this season?

The answer is: Christian Benteke (Aston Villa v Sunderland & QPR), Romelu Lukaku (West Bromwich Albion v Manchester United) and Eden Hazard (Chelsea v Newcastle United)

This week's tartan teaser is: Which four Scotsmen were UEFA European Cup/ Champions League highest goalscorers? Answer next week...

WITH HIS SPORTING ODDS AND ENDS

TOON AND DUSTED: It looks nailed on that Steve McClaren will be at Newcastle next season

Why Aye Man it's McClaren

LET'S hope the Newcastle and Spurs players don't bring their golf clubs and buckets and spades onto the park at St James's this afternoon.

Their season, arguably, finished a month ago and both sides look ready for the beach.

Spurs have only won three of their last eight PL games since beating Arsenal in February and the Magpies have lost their last five.

Steve McClaren is 1/20 at BetVictor to become the next Newcastle manager which suggests the deal is all but done to take the former England boss home after a successful spell at Middlesbrough.

After an infamous interview given by McClaren when boss of FC Twente, BetVictor have opened a market on his initial press conference at Newcastle and bet below on whether he uses any of the following popular Geordie phrases:

Pet 7/4, Why Aye Man 9/4, Toon 11/4, Gannin 6/1 Others on request!

The Magpies have only lost one of their last eight home PL games with Spurs and are 23/10 to keep all three points on home soil at BetVictor but they must do without Sissoko following his red card at Anfield on Monday.

Spurs are 13/10 to inflict a sixth successive defeat on the hosts with the draw at 5/2.

Harry Kane, Sergio Aguero and Diego Costa all have 19 PL goals and with City entertaining West Ham earlier today Kane will know how he stands with regard to the Golden Boot. Ahead of today's PL fixtures BetVictor bet: Aguero 8/11, Kane Evens, Costa 12/1.

Kane is 22/5 to grab the opener and 5/4 to find the back of the Newcastle net during the 90 minutes at BetVictor and that looks a fair price.

Kane has not scored in his last two PL games and has not gone three without a goal since December. He's due.

STEVE 1/20 TO BE TOON BOSS

● DUAL Grand National winning jockey Leighton Aspell is at Stratford today for ARTIFICE SIVOLA (2.30) and a 6lb rise in the weights may not stop his hat-trick bid.

The French-bred grey won despite jumping to his left at Kempton last time and will appreciate a return to a left-handed track.

At Wincanton, if SIR VALENTINO's jumping holds up, and he can be a bit chancy at his obstacles, he can land the feature event over the minimum trip. The selection is at his best on a flat right-handed track on good ground and will have a fast pace to chase with Miss Tenacious a front-runner.

Trainer Tom George was in excellent form at Cheltenham earlier in the week having saddled the runner up in the National at Aintree last weekend and SIR VALENTINO has had an 11-week break to get over a fall at Musselburgh when he was still bang there when coming down four out.

● The nap of the weekend is I'M IN CHARGE (4.40) who was given a poor ride by Nick Schofield last time and ought to have won.

He races from the same mark today and must be given a chance as long as the jockey remembers to put him into the race this time.

Rodgers: Leave those kids alone

By DAVE MARTIN

LIVERPOOL boss Brendan Rodgers has ordered people to get off his young stars' backs.

He called for a sense of perspective after a week when Liverpool duo Raheem Sterling and Jordon Ibe made the newspapers for their alleged off-field activities.

Sterling made the front and back pages of the tabloids this week after footage appeared of him apparently inhaling nitrous oxide along with images of the 20-year-old with a shisha pipe.

The striker then made the headlines on Monday for the all right reasons after he scored the opening goal in the 2-0 victory over Newcastle.

However, Sterling was back in the papers again on Wednesday along with 19-year-old Ibe and a shisha pipe in pictures which were reportedly taken in September.

Nitrous oxide, which is also known as 'hippy crack', and shisha pipes are not illegal, but Rodgers confirmed he has talked with the pair regarding their off-field behaviour.

"I spoke to both players and they are fully aware of what has happened – and then we talked about football," Rodgers said.

"It was something Raheem will look back on in years to come and it probably wasn't the wisest thing to do.

"In the main young footballers are good people."

DEAL ME IN, SAYS ARTETA

By MIKE MURRAY

ARSENAL skipper Mikel Arteta is on the brink of sealing a new deal at the Emirates.

Arteta is confident it will take "five minutes" to finalise a contract extension once he returns from injury.

The 33-year-old missed yesterday's FA Cup semi with an ankle problem.

Arsene Wenger is keen to retain the services of Arteta, who is out of contract in the summer but is expected to agree a 12-month extension.

And the former Everton man is determined to get himself fully match fit before signing a new deal.

He said: "My only aim is to get back fit and try to perform on the pitch.

"As long as I do that I am sure that I will continue with this club, with the relationship I have with the club and the respect I have from everybody here

"If I don't do that then I am not going to be here because I don't want to be somewhere where I cannot perform at my best and give what I can give.

"In May, when everything is fine, we will sit down and talk and it will take five minutes."

Arteta could return for the showdown against Chelsea on April 26.

Kane better than Hazard for Poch

By MIKE MURRAY

TOTTENHAM manager Mauricio Pochettino says his Harry Kane MUST be player of the year.

Poch says he would be a more more worthy winner of the PFA award than Chelsea's Eden Hazard.

Kane and Hazard have both been shortlisted for the player and young player of the year prizes and Pochettino feels the Spurs striker deserves the senior award because of his "massive impact" on English football.

He said: "I think that Hazard is a very good player, he's fantastic, a great player. But the impact that Harry has had on English football is massive.

"Maybe the impact is bigger than Hazard and his performances. Everyone knew that Hazard is a brilliant player.

"But I think not too many people expected that Harry Kane would show the performances that he has this season. This is the difference, I believe."

Kane's position would be further strengthened if he can net at Newcastle today, making him the first Spurs player to score 30 goals in a single season since Gary Lineker.

"It would be a big thing for the club and for Harry Kane," Pochettino said.

STRIKER Rudy Gestede hit a hat-trick but Rovers were forced to settle for a draw after Nottingham Forest fought back three times.

Gestede put the hosts in front in the third minute before Michail Antonio's header made it 1-1.

Rovers took the lead for a second time through Gestede's header only for Henri Lansbury to level before the break.

Gestede scored his 17th of the season after a mistake by keeper Karl Darlow.

The lead was short-lived as Antonio to headed home from 12 yards four minutes later.

Blackpool 0
Fulham 1

MATT SMITH'S header earned Fulham a win at relegated Blackpool and secured safety for the Cottagers.

Cameron had another shot saved a minute later, but Smith put Fulham ahead when he nodded in Sean Kavanagh's cross.

Nathan Delfouneso had an effort cleared off the line, while Gary Madine had a late effort well saved by Fulham goalkeeper Marcus Bettinelli.

Fulham are nine points clear of the drop, although 22nd-placed Millwall have three games to play

Brentford 2

BRENTFORD'S play-off hopes took a hit as Bolton twice came from behind to draw at Griffin Park.

Emile Heskey wasted an early chance for the visitors and he was punished by Alex P ritchard following a Bees' break.

Adam Le Fondre turned the ball beyond David Button to equalise, but the home side were back in front before the break after Jonathon Douglas' header.

Brentford pushed for a third, but an error at the back let in Mark Davies, who rolled the ball into an empty net.

Cardiff City 0
Millwall 0

RELEGATION threatened Millwall gained what could be a vital point in their bid for Championship survival, drawing 0-0 at mid-table Cardiff City.

Bluebirds midfielder Joe Ralls, 21, came closest to breaking the deadlock in a first half of few chances, hitting the Millwall bar with a cross-shot.

After the break Mark Beevers rattled the Cardiff crossbar for the visitors.

The Lions are four points from safety with three games to go, while the Bluebirds stay in 13th.

AFOBE STRIKE KEEPS DREAM ALIVE

WOLVES kept alive their slim hope of reaching the play-offs as they came from behind to draw with Ipswich.

The hosts were deflated when Richard Stearman headed into his own goal.

They were actually booed off at half-time which to a neutral seemed a little harsh.

But after Nouha Dicko headed wide from four yards, Benik Afobe steered in his 14th of the season after Rajiv van La Parra's effort looped to him.

Dicko came close to a winner but Wolves are now three points behind sixth-placed Ipswich with two games left.

Tractor Boys centre back Christophe Berra was full of praise for his team-mates.

The former Wolves man was named man of the match with a giant peformance at the back.

He said: "We defended well and showed good character to take a point.

"On their day, Afobe, Dicko and Sako would cause any side problems but I thought we kept them fairly quiet and we've defended well today.

"As defenders we were kept busy but we dealt with everything they through at us and we almost grabbed the win on the counter through Chris Wood.

"To come to Wolves and take a point at any time is a good result but it's even bigger at this stage of the season.

"We've still got a lot of work to do though because we aren't in the play-offs yet and it's going to go right down to the wire.

"But we've put ourselves in a good position with two games remaining and it's up to us to go and see the job through now."

The Black Country giants could have had their hopes of promotion stopped in their tracks right at the death.

In the fourth minute of injury time, Town's Paul Anderson belted a reasonable cross-shot over the bar from the right hand corner of the penalty area and that was that.

Wolves gave it all they had and were visibly knackered after the game.

But they won the fans round by staying on the pitch long after the final whistle to acclaim their support.

CHERRIES PAY PENALTY

BOURNEMOUTH missed the chance to return to the top of the Championship as Sheffield Wednesday equalised with a stoppage-time penalty.

Kieran Lee headed the visitors in front but Yann Kermorgant levelled with a deft header from Matt Ritchie's centre.

After Cherries' Simon Francis saw red for a second booking, Ritchie looked to have won it with a 25-yard screamer. But when Adam Smith brought down Atdhe Nuhiu with time running out, Chris Maguire made no mistake from 12 yards.

Bournemouth 2
Sheffield Wed 2

It means Eddie Howe's side remain second in the Championship — overtaking Middlesbrough on goal difference but slipping behind Watford who beat Birmingham 1-0.

Crucially, that goal difference — 15 better than Boro's — means that barring an unlikely scoring spree from the Teesside club, Bournemouth can still clinch promotion by winning their two remaining games against Bolton and Charlton.

If the result felt cruel from Bournemouth's perspective, it reflected the efforts of a mid-table Wednesday side, with nothing to play for, who never gave up.

The visitors took the lead when Lewis Buxton — who had two loan spells at Bournemouth — delivered a deep, hanging cross and Lee was allowed to pick his spot with a perfect header across goal.

With two games to go, Bournemouth still have their destiny in their hands — and that's a massive factor in the tightest promotion race for years.

EQUALISER: Maguire

Charlton 2
Leeds United 1

LEEDS fans will be happy to see the end of this season after seeing their side crash at The Valley.

Steve Morison gave the visitors great hope after opening the scoring just before half-time, but it wouldn't last.

Two goals in five minutes by the Addicks broke the Yorkshire hearts as Charlton moved right into midtable.

The leveller came from Tony Watt with just 15 minutes left on the clock.

Then Yoni Buyens got the job done from the penalty spot with 10 minutes on the clock.

Leeds huffed and puffed but couldn't get it back.

Huddersfield 4
Derby County 4

WE could have filled the entire paper with this game alone, such was the drama in West Yorkshire.

Derby went in front thanks to Tom Ince, before the home side got back on level terms through a Oscar Gobern strike.

Then the Terriers took the lead as Mark Hudson fired a header past Lee Grant before adding another in first-half injury time through Reece James.

Simon Dawkins then got one back for Derby before the equaliser came via Jess Lingard. Goals from Nakhi Wells and Ince again left it all square.

Watford 1
Birmingham C 0

IT'S Watford's turn to be top of the Championship pile after a hard-fought win over the Blues

The Hornets nest was jumping as the home fans roared their team on to the win that means promotion to the Premier League remains in their hands.

An early chance came to Matej Vydra but the hitman fluffed his lines at a crucial stage,

Birmingham had their chances, particularly when Gabriele Angella looked to have major opening in the first half.

The points were secured thanks to a strike from Craig Cathcart 10 minutes into the second half.

Wigan Athletic 2
Brighton & HA 1

WIGAN kept their faint hopes of survival alive with a win over the Seagulls.

They have put the drop off for a good seven days thanks to goals from Tim Chow and a late winner from James Perch.

In between, Albion had equalised thanks to a Dale Stephens strike that threatened to upset the home crowd.

The opener was a good goal, set up thanks to some nice work by Jermaine Pennant.

Things still look bleak at the JJB, with Wigan five points from safety with just two games to play.

LOOKING UP: Ulloa and Cambiasso celebrate his goal

Ull of a win

LEO FIRES FOXES OFF THE BOTTOM

LEONARDO Ulloa and Andy King scored to lift Leicester off the bottom but the Foxes were also indebted to keeper Kasper Schmeichel.

By MIKE FRANCIS

Ulloa was originally meant to be on the bench but a calf injury to David Nugent in the warm-up gave the Argentine striker his chance.

And he capitalised to score in the 15th minute to bag his 10th of the season and his first since January.

It was no more than the Foxes deserved as they dominated the first half in search of their third successive League win to climb off the bottom.

Nod

Ulloa netted with a fierce low shot when he flicked on a free-kick which Wes Morgan laid off to him.

He wasn't meant to be on the pitch at all.

It was only when David Nugent felt a strain in the warm-up that he got the nod.

Ulloa scored a goal that provided the platform for a victory that looks increasingly like being part of a truly great escape.

Inside 15 minutes he scored that goal which provided the platform for a victory that looks increasingly like being the stuff of legend.

That familiar Great Escape melody was hummed loudly by Leicester's fans at full-time, fuelled by Andy King's late second goal and the sight of their team moving off the bottom of the table for the first time since November.

The Welsh lads eventually strung some passes together before the break.

And, after Nigel Pearson's home side reverted from 3-5-2 to 4-4-2 at the interval, Swansea started to press for a leveller.

It needed a brilliant save by Schmeichel in the 65th minute with the foot of his outstretched left leg to prevent Nelson Oliveira from equalising.

But the hosts held on for a vital win with Esteban Cambiasso also playing a pivotal role at a packed, tense King Power Stadium which rocked at times.

Schmeichel grasped the ball and blew out his cheeks moments later after saving another snap shot from Shelvey.

Jefferson Montero than saw his shot deflect wide off Morgan when it could have gone just about anywhere.

From then the game was Leicester's.

Through Vardy, Albrighton and substitute Riyad Mahrez they possessed enough pace to counter at speed and Swansea struggled to handle it.

In the 73rd minute Vardy led a two-on-one breakaway but over-hit his pass to Mahrez allowing Lukasz Fabianski time to dive and block.

Incensed

Vardy was again clear six minutes later through Danny Drinkwater's pass and fell under contact from Ashley Williams as he pushed the ball past the Swansea captain. Pearson was incensed but it would have been soft.

Vardy sent another chance over, and Fabianski palmed wide a stinging shot by Mahrez.

But a minute from time Leicester did seal the win that sent their supporters home happy.

Esteban Cambiasso, superb all afternoon, fired a free-kick through Swansea's wall, Fabianski spilled the ball, and King applied the required tap-in.

TOP FORM: Schmeichel

POYET PAL: Defoe

Defoe so sorry for axed Gus

SUNDERLAND striker Jermain Defoe says he is still reeling from Gus Poyet's sacking as Black Cats boss.

The former Tottenham ace was brought in by the Uruguyan in January in a bid to keep the ailing Wearsiders in the top flight.

But he could do little about him getting the sack just a few weeks later, with Dick Advocaat brought in as his replacement.

Defoe said: "Gus is a cool guy and I played with him at Tottenham.

"It's never nice to see a manager get sacked like that.

"It's happened so many times during my career.

"Even if I didn't know him before, it would be bad. It makes me quite sad."

Defoe is desperate to fire Sunderland up the table, with their battle for survival looking tougher by the week.

The 32-year-old has come in for some stick after scoring just three times since his move — although his screamer in the Derby win over Newcastle will have silenced most of the moaners.

Defoe said: "As a forward, there's pressure on to score goals.

"It's never easy because at the back of your mind all you can think about is how we desperately need to win the match.

"If you love football, you try to enjoy these moments and handle the pressure."

Pard: Pulis saved club

CRYSTAL PALACE boss Alan Pardew reckons Tony Pulis saved his club by keeping them in the Premier League last season.

He shudders to think of what would've happened if Palace had gone down.

Pulis left Palace abruptly and refuses to explain why he walked out before Neil Warnock took over.

But Pardew said: "Tony achieved fantastic results last season here.

I wouldn't be here, and a lot of these players wouldn't be here, if he hadn't done that.

"We have to be thankful to him for that.

"He should also be thankful that we're in the position we're in and that the players and myself have got the team where it is."

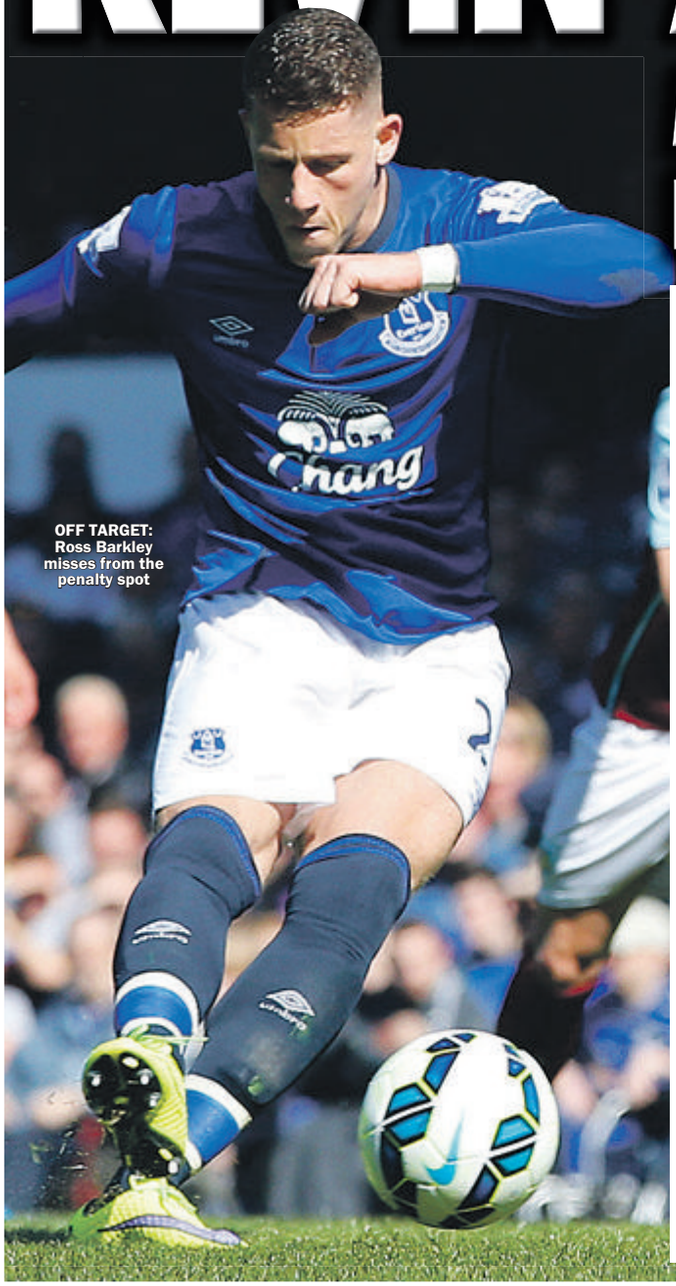
Mirallas strike sends Burnley rock bottom



OFF TARGET: Ross Barkley misses from the penalty spot

KEVIN MIRALLAS scored the winner as Everton sent 10-man Burnley crashing to the bottom of the Premier League.

Mirallas finished off Seamus Coleman's first-half cross at the second attempt for the Toffees, who had already had Ross Barkley's penalty saved by Burnley goalkeeper Tom Heaton.

The visitors did not recover once Ashley Barnes had been sent off for his second booking just before half-time.

They have now gone almost six-and-a-half hours without scoring.

Barnes was famously condemned by Jose Mourinho earlier in the season for a 'criminal' challenge on Nemanja Matic that saw the Chelsea player sent off for retaliation while he escaped unpunished.

He was less fortunate this time as Mike Jones gave him a second yellow card on the stroke of half-time for bringing down Seamus Coleman.

It left the Clarets with a mountain that was too steep to climb and in truth they'd been dominated even before then with Ross Barkley missing a penalty before Kevin Mirallas scored to put the home side ahead after 29 minutes.

But the visitors, who have won only two of their 36 away games in the Premier League, will also question why Mirallas didn't also get an early bath for a high challenge on George Boyd early in the second half. The result means Everton remain unbeaten at Goodison in 3pm Saturday kick-offs.

By PETER WILLETTS

For the penalty, David Jones casually lost the ball to Aaron Lennon near the halfway line and in his anxiety to win the ball back from the jet-heeled winger, he brought him down.

Burnley protested the foul had taken place outside the penalty area – the initial trip appeared to take place outside but there was also a follow-up shove inside the box — but in the end it didn't matter.

GOAL: Mirallas

Jubilant

Instead of usual taker Leighton Baines stepping forward, it was Barkley.

He struck his shot firmly enough but Heaton dived brilliantly to his right to save and was immediately jumped on by his jubilant team-mates as Barkley looked to the sky in exasperation.

Even so, after a disappointing season, Roberto Martinez will feel he can finish on a high and end up in the top half of the table.

Everton's goal was really nicely crafted by Arouna Kone.

After some good work, he set the chance up on a plate for Mirallas who calmly slotted the ball past a helpless Heaton.

Burnley now face a fight for survival but they will take heart from the fact that they didn't cop a beating at Goodison despite being a man light.

CARRA CALLS FOR STER LIFT

LIVERPOOL legend Jamie Carragher has given Raheem Sterling a proper slagging for extracting the urine from his beloved club.

The defender who inspired the song "we all dream of a team of Carraghers" to the tune of Yellow Submarine is far from impressed with Sterling, and his agent's, transfer antics.

Sterling, 20, has held talks with Reds manager Brendan Rodgers after being photographed using a shisha pipe and appearing to inhale nitrous oxide.

"Even if you don't talk about it, it is in the background," said Carragher, 37. "Rodgers is asked the day before a game about this nonsense, when he should be talking football he's thinking about Sterling."

By JOHN ANTHONY

Carragher, who made 737 appearances for Liverpool — below only Ian Callaghan in the club's record-appearance list - also believes Sterling's interview with BBC Sport, that was unsanctioned by the club — was an issue.

Rodgers says Raheem Sterling is a "good boy".

Sterling explained he had turned down a new contract offer worth £100,000-a-week but said he is "not about the money".

"As young players, and I have been guilty myself, we have made mistakes but hopefully this will be a maturing point for him," Carragher added.

Rodgers says his player — nominated for the PFA's Young Player of the Year award this week — will look back on recent events and "wonder what he was doing".

Asked if players would intervene in this situation, Carragher added: "If it continually happens you know you've got a problem and you may need to pull someone and have a word with them.

"I would do it. To pull on that red shirt before the most dedicated supporters, in this or any other land, is an absolute privilege. It's nobody's right."

One of Carragher's former team-mates, Danny Murphy, thinks the Reds should cut and run this summer.

He said: "He has to remember it was Liverpool who has given him the opportunity and a platform to get to the level he's at.

"He has to show the club a bit of respect and it wouldn't surprise me if they let him go if a big offer came in this summer."

Proper Charlie sickens Saints

Stoke City 2
Southampton 1

SOUTHAMPTON'S hopes of Champions League qualification were dealt a severe blow as Stoke came from behind to end a four-match winless run.

Morgan Schneiderlin tapped home the visitors' opener after Jose Fonte's header from Steven Davis's corner.

Stoke pulled level early in the second half as Mame Biram Diouf swept in from 10 yards after Steven Nzonzi's miscued cross rebounded off the bar.

Substitute Charlie Adam volleyed in the winner from close range late on.

A bad afternoon for Southampton concluded with defender Toby Alderweireld leaving the field on a stretcher with a shoulder injury.

Defeat means Saints are five points adrift of fourth place having played a game more than their rivals.

But with five matches remaining they have already equalled last season's club-record Premier League points tally of 56 and look certain to beat their highest finish of eighth.

Finish

The Saints were tipped to struggle after several high-profile departures in the summer but, under Ronald Koeman, have spent most of the season challenging for a Champions League spot.

They now sit in sixth — the final guaranteed Europa League spot — but know, depending on who wins the FA Cup, a seventh-placed finish could be enough.

Stoke, meanwhile, are on course for back-to-back top-half finishes for the first time in 40 years.

Stoke were unable to test goalkeeper Kelvin Davis in a poor-quality opening half, but Nzonzi should have levelled when he completely miscued from just yards out.

The Saints defence was breached in freak circumstances soon after the break, though, as Nzonzi ballooned a cross onto the bar and Diouf reacted fastest to convert.

The visitors regrouped in search of a winner and Dusan Tadic was denied by Glenn Whelan after Sadio Mane beat Asmir Begovic to the ball on the right.

His failure to score was to prove costly.

GOAL HERO: Harry Kane

CARVER ALL CARVED UP OVER KANE

Newcastle v Tottenham

Today, 4pm, live on Sky Sports 1

NEWCASTLE head coach John Carver has been having sleepless nights — but not about his job.

He's worried about the threat of Harry Kane ahead of today's clash with Tottenham at St James's Park.

While Spurs' form has been typically up and down all season, Kane has been the find of the campaign. He is vying with Diego Costa and Sergio Aguero for the Premier League golden boot on 19 goals and has made a massive impact already in an England shirt.

Now Carver knows his side face a big task in keeping Kane quiet.

He said: "Harry Kane has been outstanding.

He deserved to get into the England team and it's great to see a young English player doing so well.

"But we have a more reasonable back four and hopefully they can stem his flow."

There more on Carver's plate than Kane's form, as his side have slumped to five Premier League defeats on the bounce.

They had the cigars out a few weeks ago with a midtable spot seemingly assured.

But after that chronic run the Magpies have started to look nervously over their shoulder.

FEARS: Carver

Massive

Two home games in a row gives Carver's side a chance to arrest that alarming slide.

He said: "They are two massive games for us.

"There's no doubt about it — we are looking for results by hook or by crook.

"It is all about winning, not about how we perform. It's about the results.

"It is encouraging that we have four at home and two away, but we have to start winning now."

It might be a home game, but it remains to be seen how supportive the Newcastle fans will be.

Angry supporters are planning a boycott of the Spurs game — unhappy at the stewardship of owner Mike Ashley.

The Newcastle United Supporters Trust think there could be as many as 20,000 empty seats at St James's this afternoon.

And Carver can't deny that it could be a massive distraction.

He added: "I know people will protest. They have their right to do that.

"I want the fans who do come into the stadium to get right behind the team.

"We need them. I know how important you are.

"Yes, we have to generate it from within. But at the same time it does make a difference when we have the fans behind what we are trying to do.

"All I am asking for is to get behind the team.

"The team has to give everything they've got. That's all we can expect."

On the pitch, Newcastle welcome Fabricio Coloccini back to captain the side after a suspension.

Tottenham are waiting on the fitness of keeper Hugo Lloris, Kyle Walker and Jan Vertonghen who are all doubts.

PREMIER LEAGUE DOGFIGHT: SAFETY

Baggies seal top flight future with vital victory

By MIKE MURRAY

WEST BROM look to have secured their Premier League safety as goals from James Morrison and Craig Gardner gave them victory at Crystal Palace — their first away win since November.

The Baggies were rapidly off the mark in two minutes as Morrison headed home from their very first corner.

It was shoddy defending as he was left to do as he pleased from six yards out.

West Brom should have had a penalty on 15 minutes when Victor Anchebe was clattered to the floor inside the box by Jedinack. It was a clear spot kick but the referee kept the whistle in his pocket.

After going behind the hosts dominated possession until the 51st minute when West Brom went two up.

Scorcher it was too.

It emerged from a Brunt corner which was only half cleared and dropped to Gardner.

He pulled the right trigger back and whacked in from 25 yards.

Just before the end Sanogo had the ball in the net for Palace but it was rightly ruled out for offside.

Palace had plenty of pressure at they end but the ball wouldn't hit the net and when Glen Murray flashed past from close range it jyst summed up their day.

The Baggies never looked that convincing but Palace will need to overcome their goal-aversion if they are to secure a top half finish.

Outwitted

Both bosses, Alan Pardew and Tony Pulis, have done tremendous jobs having taken over struggling outfits with not an awful lot of the season still to play.

Pulis was left with the bragging rights after his side's dogged determination outwitted the more inventiveness of Palace.

Pardew said: "I don't think that result was a fair reflection of the game but we have been under pressure and won matches so you have to take the odd reversal on the chin when life goes against you."

Pulis said: "When I first came here the object was simply Premier League survival.

"Let nobody thing we are there yet, becose we are not.

"But we are close."

The pleasing thing there was no bad blood between the Palace fans and ex-boss Pulis.

He was roundly applauded as he came out from the tunnel in the corner of a ground where the seats are bvery close to the pitch and the crowd can be unforgiving — just ask Eric Cantona!

A few catcalls and boos broke through the surface, but they were drowned out by waves of the respect he deserved for saving them from relegation last season, during his 10-month tenure, when he won the Premier League LMA Manager of the Year award.

Yannick Bolasie even made the effort to go over and shake Pulis' hand as he strolled down the touchline.

Yet the south London locals would not have been expecting what came within two minutes of kick off when the Baggies took the lead.

Morrison managed to lose Palace midfielder Jason Puncheon and nod in, completely free of any challenge, from five yards out. Some of Puncheon's team-mates looked around in disbelief that the West Brom man was afforded so much space in the box.

You have to give credit to Pardew's Palace though, they don't hump it like many teams in their position would. The home side started to play the eye-catching football that has made the manager so popular in these parts during his short spell in charge.

And it was all coming through their main man, Bolasie, on the left.

In the 24th minute he weaved into the box, played a one-two then poked an effort towards the near post which West Brom goalkeeper Boaz Myhill did well to save with his feet.

Three minutes later he cut in from his flank and bent an effort towards the far corner that Myhill clawed out. Then, just after the half-hour, a ball came in from the opposite flank from Joel Ward, was headed on by Murray and Bolasie executed a sublime bicycle kick, only to be denied by Myhill once again.

If Pulis, dressed in his usual full tracksuit, trainers and cap on the touchline, provided this Crystal Palace team with the spine and solidity to compete in the top flight, Pardew, resplendent in suit and tie, has given them the suave and flair to delight.

It was a facinating battle of wits.

City go limp as season turns sour

Manchester City v West Ham

Today, 1.30pm, live on Sky Sports 1

EVEN with their massive squad packed with world stars, Manchester City are facing an injury crisis ahead of West Ham's visit.

The biggest miss will be centre-back and skipper Vincent Kompany who limped out of last weekend's disasterous Manchester derby at half-time.

The Belgian's season looks like it could be over after scans confirmed he has a badly pulled muscle that could take a few weeks to clear up.

Stevan Jovetic, Wilfried Bony, Gael Clichy and James Milner are also on the sidelines for a game that City must win to keep their top four hops alive.

Under-fire boss Manuel Pellegrini said: "Vincent has a muscle injury – we don't know how long it will take for him to come back from it.

"We don't know if he will be fit before the end of the season."

City's season has taken a sharp turn for the worst in the past few weeks.

Wings

Pellegrini is now fighting for his job after City slid from chasing the title to battling to keep their Champions League spot.

If they did drop out of the top four, there's little doubt that the Chilean will be handed his P45 — especially with Jurgen Klopp now waiting in the wings.

That said, it's an open secret that the City chiefs would rather wait for Pep Guardiola to become available rather than bring the German in.

The unflappable veteran knows he needs to get a grip — or lose his job.

He said: "Every time you manage an important club if you don't have the results that the club deserves everybody is talking about changing the manager.

"I trust a lot in the work I do. Nobody is happy with the results, you can't be happy when you are out of the fight for the title.

"It's logical that the thing is to sack the manager but I don't think that is the correct diagnostic."

CROCKED: Sakho

West Ham head to Manchester on the back of a modest run that has seen them win just one of their past 10 Premier League games.

The Hammers fans haven't seen success on the road since their win at West Brom way back in December.

Sam Allardyce is also under pressure with his contract coming to an end in the summer.

His plight isn't helped by the loss of some key players.

Big Sam must find a new man up front with Diafra Sakho out injured, possibly for the rest of the campaign.

Carlton Cole looks the most likely man to step in.

Enner Valencia is another option after recovering from a toe injury that ruled him out last week.

LEWIS HAMILTON made it a magical four Poles in a row by qualifying fastest for the Bahrain Grand Prix.

The Brit scorched his way through all three qualifying sessions, coming out quickest each time.

He now gets the chance to extend his lead at the top of the drivers' championship from the front of the grid.

He was a full four tenths of a second ahead of Ferrari's Seb Vettel, with Nico Rosberg back in third.

It's Hamilton's first Pole in Bahrain.

Looking further down the grid, Kimi Raikkonen's woes go on as he starts in fourth.

Then comes the Williams duo of Valtteri Bottas and Felipe Massa who are fifth and sixth.

Jenson Button limped into 20th and last place.

Villa striker heart set on summer exit

BYE-BYE: Benteke will be waving goodbye this summer

MATCH ACTION!

IT'S ALL INSIDE

VILLA boss Tim Sherwood dropped a bombshell ahead of today's FA Cup semi-final by saying star striker Christian Benteke is leaving this summer.

The Belgium international will not be leaving Villa Park for less than £25m.

Sherwood said: "You don't want players going into the last 18 months of their contract. He's a top player and

I want to keep him at the club.

"But you can't force any player to stay.

"You might as well take the money because you end up without the money or the player."

Liverpool duo Martin Skrtel and Steven Gerrard both return from suspension for the semi-final at Wembley.

However, only the Slovakian centre-back is likely to regain his place in the starting line-up as Gerrard has played just 27 minutes of football since February 10 because of injury and a three-match ban.

Striker Daniel Sturridge is a doubt with a hip problem but fellow forward Mario Balotelli trained this week after a three-game break through illness and injury.

Jordon Ibe is cup-tied from his time on loan at Derby earlier this season.

Meanwhile Sherwood says Villa are "making strides" with their playing style — as he also revealed his team have been practicing penalties ahead of today's showdown.

Sherwood has attempted to give Villa an attacking edge since his arrival in February.

When he headed into Villa Park, the claret and blues played a patient passing game.

Sherwood has worked on altering this at Bodymoor Heath in training sessions.

Threat

He wants his team to be more unpredictable for the opposition — and he feels his side are growing into that playing ethic.

Sherwood also confirmed that his players have been working on spot-kicks as they look ahead to facing Liverpool.

He said: "We have seen some subtle changes already — we are more attacking than possibly previously.

"I think the goal tally shows that.

"But it's still a way from how I want to play the game. But we always carry an attacking threat. We can mix the game up.

"We can play through the midfield and we can play long and direct.

"This weekend it gives us a great opportunity to ask Liverpool some questions because they never know what they're going to get from us.

"It's just about our players recognising when to play long and when to play short and when to slow the game down.

"They are gradually doing that.

"It's taking time on the training field but it's up to the individuals out on the pitch to recognise it at the time.

"We're making strides with that.

"We have worked on taking penalties. Hopefully we don't need them.

"But I think it's important that you don't leave any stone unturned."
